UD AFRO-AMERICAN AFFAIRS CENTER
TO CO-SPONSOR "HARLEM HEYDAY"

DAYTON, Ohio, September 27, 1979 --- The Center for Afro-American Affairs at the University of Dayton and the Bolinga Center at Wright State University will co-sponsor the musical "Harlem Heyday" on October 6. The theatre group, AFRI Productions, formerly known as Voices Inc., will perform the play at 8 p.m. in the Performing Arts Center at Wright State.

"Harlem Heyday," a musical play about Black America, is set in Harlem in the 1920's when Blacks began to celebrate Blacks in word, song and dance. This was the Black Renaissance---the Harlem Renaissance.

AFRI Productions is a non-profit organization specializing in Black musical theatre productions. It was established in 1968 in association with the off-Broadway hit "The Believers." The group has gained national exposure and acclaim from such plays as "Journey into Blackness" and "Movin' on Up."

Tickets for the play are $5.00 for adults and $3.00 for all students. For more information contact the UD Center for Afro-American Affairs at 229-3634.
